THE ETERNAL TURMOIL OF GETTING SQUARED AROUND

Round and round the telephone pole, the monkey chased the weasel. Your talent is your "call." Your true destiny speaks in your character. If you have discovered your place in the world, the problem is not one of finding but of maintaining it. The true test of your ability is the sum of the mistakes you make.

A famous Englishman said to a near relative, "Don't choose medicine, for we have never had a murderer in our family. We shall never have a murderer in our family. You are not a murderer, but you are a Methodist."

THE MUCKPULL

It is reported that Ant Work Mollusks have spent all their lives between these sheets, and that when they see it written down they will have their fill.

Mrs. Jenny B. Jones, in her modest way, said: "We are all Ants, and Ant work is the foundation of a stable home." Thanking work as a real, a vital element of life.

We report that there was an Ant strike last week, but the Ants finally went back to work. Now all is quiet on the Ant front, and the Ants are eating again.

Mr. G. H. Wright, a friend of the Ants, writes: "I hope the Ants will stay out of politics and set up a government of their own."

"Till now," says Mr. G. H. Wright, "the Ants have set up a government and then changed it every six months."

"It's a lot better than they had last year."

In the Ants' opinion, Mr. G. H. Wright's suggestions are well-timed and much appreciated.

ANTS AND MOLLUSKS

"The real Mollusks," says Mr. G. H. Wright, "are the ones that make you laugh when you see them. But the Ants only make you laugh when they're dead."}
